PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Global Health & Economic Data Analysis — Independent Project, Public dataset 2026

- Analyzed a public dataset of 142 countries (1952–2007) using Python (pandas) to explore trends in life expectancy, GDP, and population growth.
- Wrote SQL queries to compare outcomes across countries and continents — identifying the largest 55-year life expectancy gains (Oman: +38 years) and the only two countries where it declined (Zimbabwe, Swaziland).
- Built a 4-sheet Excel workbook using live formulas (not static values) for reproducible, auditable reporting.
- Designing an accompanying Power BI dashboard to make the findings interactively explorable.
- Full write-up and charts published in portfolio: generalb-dev.github.io/my-portfolio/projects/data-case-study.html
